

MANSIONS ALONG THE DELAWARE

Enjoy a visit to the country estates of Andalusia, Glen Foerd, and Pennsbury Manor along the banks of the Delaware River. Your group will embark on an elegant bus tour to explore three centuries of gracious living in Bucks County.

GLEN FOERD

Glen Foerd on the Delaware is a 19th-century riverfront mansion on an 18-acre landscaped estate with rose garden. Features furnished rooms, restored formal art gallery, elaborate leaded stained-glass skylights, Haskell pipe organ, grand staircase and rathskeller.

PENNSBURY MANOR

This is William Penn's 17th-century country estate located along the Delaware River. The reconstructed, 43-acre plantation, abounding with country life, features a manor house with period furnishings, outbuildings, livestock and gardens.
