

United States Military Academy West Point & Thayer Hotel

“To educate, train, and inspire the Corps of Cadets so that each graduate is a commissioned leader of character committed to the values of Duty, Honor, Country; professional growth throughout a career as an officer in the United States Army; and a lifetime of selfless service to the nation.”

United States Military Academy at West Point website

The Thayer Hotel at West Point has been part of American history since 1926, when it was originally constructed to accommodate U.S. Military Academy personnel and their guests. It was a successor of the original West Point Hotel and is named for Colonel Sylvanius Thayer, Superintendent of the Academy from 1817 to 1833.

Visitors today can view the actual weapons, uniforms and memorabilia of American Soldiers from the 17th century to the present as well as military artifacts from around the world.
